Greetings!

Every season, God sends us a dynamic staff from near and far. Our staff and program are geared to ensure that the camper has a great time at camp, build community amongst their fellow campers and challenge and renew their mind, body and spirit!

Bingle Camp has been providing children and youth with wholesome camping experiences for over 50 years. We seek every opportunity to expand our program and search for staff members committed to sharing Christ with campers through daily camp life.

Whether you are a returning guest, new to the Fairbanks area, or new to our program we look forward to serving you and your family!

In Christ, Lisa Eldridge, Admin Manager

About Bingle Camp:

Bingle Camp is located on beautiful Harding Lake, 45 miles south of Fairbanks via the Richardson Hwy. See the web page for map. Bingle Camp is situated on 66 acres, which offers your camper the opportunity to experience God's Great Outdoors, gain new skills and challenge their Faith in Christ. On camp premises, there is a Lodge, Chapel, two shower houses with flushing toilets and showers, six log cabins that each accommodate up to 12 campers, plus a wonderful waterfront, home of the Iceberg, and supervised by a certified lifeguard and staff. All programs include daily Bible Study, chapel times, games, swimming, elective times with choices such as arts and crafts, archery, volleyball, and hiking. In addition all campers will participate in building community through cooperative games and team building exercises. Bingle Camp is owned by Yukon Presbytery and operated by an Independent Board of Directors. Bingle Camp has been operating interdenomina-
